Cl. 66.—Royal Warrant—First Appointments to the Army.

VICTORIA R.

(Issued as a Special Army Circular, on 4th April, 1874.)

Whereas by our Warrants of 30th October, 1871, and 28th February, 1873, we did provide for certain necessary changes in respect of first appointments to our Army, and did command that sub lieutenants in order to qualify for the rank of lieutenant should be required to serve satisfactorily with one of our regiments before going through their course of study for such period as should from time to time be determined by our Secretary of State;

Our will and pleasure is that Article 2 of our Warrant of 30th October, 1871, and our Warrant of 28th February, 1873, be cancelled, and that the following regulations be made applicable to the successful candidates at such competitive examinations as may hereafter be held under the authority of Article 1 of our Warrant of 30th October, 1871:—

1. On the conclusion of a competitive examination, such successful candidates only shall be appointed to sub lieutenancies as the requirements of the service at home and abroad may warrant.

2. Such successful candidates as cannot receive commissions as sub lieutenants immediately shall undergo a course of instruction as students until such time as vacancies may occur to which they can be appointed as sub lieutenants.

3. Sub lieutenants, in order to qualify for the rank of lieutenant, shall be required to serve satisfactorily with one of our regiments for such period as shall from time to time be determined by our Secretary of State, and either before or after such service (except in the case of non commissioned officers promoted to be sub lieutenants), shall go through such a course of study and pass such a professional examination as may be fixed from time to time.

Given at our Court at Osborne, this 2nd day of April, 1874, in the 37th year of our reign.

By Her Majesty's command,
GATHORNE HARDY.

Secretary of State's Instructions on the foregoing Warrant.

1. A certain number of successful candidates at the competitive examination for commissions in the Army, which will be held on 16th April, 1874, will be immediately gazetted to sub lieutenancies in regiments serving in India, and having served with their regiment or depôts for one year will be attached to garrison classes in India to undergo the course of military instruction required to qualify them for promotion to the rank of lieutenant.

2. A further number of the successful candidates to be regulated by the requirements of the service in regiments serving elsewhere than in India, will be immediately appointed to sub lieutenancies. Such sub lieutenants will not be gazetted to any regiments, but will be placed on a general list and required to join the Royal Military College, Sandhurst, on the 15th June, 1874. On the satisfactory completion of their course of instruction they will be gazetted to regiments in which there may be vacancies for sub lieutenants with a view to their completing the period of service required before they can be promoted to the rank of lieutenant.

3. Should any successful candidates remain after the selections made under the directions of paragraphs 1 and 2, they will be required to proceed on the 15th June to the Royal Military College at Sandhurst as students. As vacancies occur in the Army they will be gazetted to a general list, but will be required to complete their course of instruction, before being posted to the regiments for which they may then be selected.

4. Until gazetted the successful competitors who join the Royal Military College as students will receive no pay, and will be required to defray the cost of their messing, which, with other incidental expenses, will probably amount to 4s. a-day.

Cl. 67.—Enlistment, Re-engagement, and Extension of Army Service.

1. The Secretary of State has approved of the following instructions in reference to enlistment, re-engagements, and extension of Army service under sections 4 and 6 of "The Army Enlistment Act, 1870."

CONDITIONS OF SERVICE.

2. Recruits may be enlisted for long or short service in such proportions as may from time to time be directed by the Adjutant General for—

- b. For a brigade belonging to any other sub-district for which recruiting is open.
- c. For any other corps for which recruiting is open.

7. Recruits, if they wish it, may also enlist for general service, in which case they will be posted to any Infantry brigade, Cavalry regiment, or corps, of the arm of the service for which they enlist.

8. Recruits enlisted under the above conditions when once posted to an Infantry brigade, Cavalry regiment, or corps, will not subsequently be liable to be transferred to any other brigade, regiment, or corps, without their own consent, except in the cases provided for by the 7th and 11th sections of the Army Enlistment Act, 1870. But this regulation will not apply to men enlisted for general service as schoolmasters in the corps of armourers, for the School of Musketry, or for the band of the Royal Military College.

9. Any soldier who, having enlisted subsequent to the passing of the Army Enlistment Act of 1870, shall have completed 11 years' Army service, or 9 years in certain cases when ordered for foreign service, may, with the consent of his commanding officer, or other competent military authority, be re-engaged for such a period as shall complete 21 years in Her Majesty's service.

EXTENSION OF ARMY SERVICE.

10. Soldiers enlisted for short service who are non-commissioned officers, musicians, artificers, or men likely to make good non-commissioned officers, may at any time after the expiration of the first three years' service in the Army, if specially recommended, extend their Army service, to complete 12 years' service with the colours.

11. Clause 48, Army Circulars, 1873, is hereby cancelled.

2. The allowance of 6d. a day issuable under the article above quoted, except in the case of men on the march, will be charged in the general state of the pay list, supported by a statement of particulars, on the form printed in the Appendix [not printed in the Army List], showing the reasons in each case why rations were not issued, and in the case of married men, mess waiters, &c., must be further supported by a reference to the War Office authority.

3. Article 2 of the Instructions issued with the Royal Warrant of 20th September, 1873, Clause 126, Army Circulars, 1873, is hereby cancelled.

Cl. 75.—Marking Baggage.

1. The necessary paint for marking baggage (section 6, paragraph 28, Queen's Regulations, 1873) may be purchased by officers commanding regiments and corps, and charged in their pay lists.

ARMY CIRCULARS—continued.

Cl. 76.—Flags.

1. Steps will be taken at once for the withdrawal into control stores of all "Royal Standards" and "Union Flags" which may be in possession of the troops in excess of regulation [para. 75, section 3, Queen's Regulations, 1873], and controllers will not authorize the repair of any flags in the possession of troops beyond the number sanctioned by Clause 127, Army Circulars, 1872.

2. Flags of sizes which have become obsolete need not be returned into store, but may be continued in use until worn out.

ARMY MEDICAL DEPARTMENT.*Cl. 77.—Hospital Grounds and Gardens.

1. The responsibility of keeping in order hospital grounds and gardens will, as laid down in paragraph 6, Clause 44, Army Circulars, 1873, rest with the Army Medical Department.

2. For this purpose a gardener will be allowed when necessary, as one of the hospital servants, his pay being chargeable to the vote for "Medical Establishment and Services."

3. The Medical Department will make requisitions upon the Engineer Department (Clause 376, Regulations for the Royal Engineer Department, 1873) for everything that may be necessary in connection with the laying out, planting, and maintenance of such grounds and gardens, including the making and repairing all fences, roads, and walks therein, and for all supplies which may be required by the gardener (such as seeds, pots, manure, &c.), the cost of such services being chargeable to the incidental item, vote for works.

Cl. 78.—Infectious Diseases—Sanitary Precautions.

The following sanitary precautions will invariably be adopted when infectious fevers or other infectious diseases shall have occurred among the occupants of officers', non-commissioned officers', or married soldiers' quarters, or in barrack rooms. In cases where hospital bedding, clothing, &c., shall have been used by such patients, the instructions contained in § 9 will be observed:—

Scarlet Fever in Quarters.

1. When a case of scarlet fever occurs in quarters:—

a. The rooms will be vacated, and the windows kept open for as long a time as practicable to insure thorough ventilation.

b. The furniture, floors, and all the painted wood-work will be sponged and scrubbed.

c. The bedding, clothes, carpets, &c., will be thoroughly cleansed and disinfected before further use.

d. The ceilings will be whitewashed.

e. The walls, if papered, will be re-papered, the old paper being first carefully scraped off. If not papered, they will be scraped and finished as before.

2. The medical officer, who may have attended the case, will represent in writing to the officer commanding the steps required to be taken under sections a, b and c, § 1.

3. The officer commanding will give the necessary instructions for the performance of the services.

4. The services alluded to in Sections d and e, § 1, will be carried out by the Royal Engineer Department on a certificate in writing from the principal medical officer that a case of scarlet fever has occurred.

5. The cost of services alluded to in d and e will be charged to the Incidental Item Vote for Works (Incidental item, Part III.), the certificate of the principal medical officer being in all cases attached to the claim.

6. The repapering, colouring, and whitewashing will be restricted to the room in which the case of fever shall have occurred.

INFECTIOUS DISEASE IN BARRACKS.

7. Whenever, in consequence of the occurrence of disease in barracks, it is considered advisable by the principal medical officer of the district, the barrack room will be vacated, thoroughly cleaned, and lime-washed, and left unoccupied with the windows open as long as practicable; but when, in addition, it is deemed necessary in the first instance to fumigate the room, one of the processes detailed in § 11 will be adopted.

ARMY CIRCULARS—continued.

8. Of the barrack bedding, used by sufferers from infectious fevers prior to admission into hospital, the straw will be burnt, and the remainder, together with the clothing belonging to the patients but not actually in use, will, if not liable to injury thereby, be subjected to the process of boiling when practicable, or be immediately steeped in boiling water, without removal to hospital. The articles will then be handed over to the Control Department for the purpose of being exposed to the air and subsequently washed.

HOSPITAL BEDDING, &amp;c.

9. Whenever hospital bedding, clothing, &c., have been used by patients affected with specific fevers of infectious character, they will be treated as follows:—

- a. The hair of the mattress, &c., will be opened out, exposed to the air and beaten, and, when practicable, submitted to a dry heat of not less than  $250^{\circ}$  for at least one hour before being used again; the remainder of the bedding, hospital clothing, and such of the clothing worn by patients at their admission as is not liable to injury thereby, will be disinfected, steeped in boiling water, exposed to the air, beaten, and afterwards washed with soap and water. Boiling the articles instead of steeping them in boiling water is preferable when it can be done, in which case disinfection by chemicals will not be necessary.
- b. Such articles of a soldier's kit as cannot be treated in the manner laid down in the foregoing paragraph, will be removed to hospital, and there fumigated, and exposed to the air and sun for a week, beaten and brushed.

FOREIGN STATIONS.

10. After the occurrence of a case of yellow fever or other disease of an infectious character in any barrack abroad, the room or quarter in which the case occurred will be disinfected and lime-washed. The floors will be well scoured and the paint well washed with soap and warm water. Before the room or quarter is reoccupied, the windows will be left open for as long as practicable, to secure thorough ventilation. The lime-washing above referred to will be undertaken by the Royal Engineers.

FUMIGATION.

11. When fumigation is considered to be necessary, one of the following processes will be adopted:—

With Chlorine Gas.

Oxide of Manganese (in powder)	...	...	...	1 "
Sulphuric Acid	...	...	...	1 "

- c. Burn two ounces of sulphur in a pipkin.
- d. All doors and windows and other openings in the room will be closed before commencing fumigation.
- e. The operator will leave the room immediately the process has commenced.
- f. At the expiration of from two to three hours all doors and windows will be thrown open, and free ventilation established.
- g. Barrack rooms will be entirely emptied before being fumigated.

12. All processes of disinfection and fumigation will be carried out by the subordinates of the Medical Department, wherever the necessary establishment exists. Materials for the above purposes will be obtained from the Control Department and medical officers will supervise the use of chemicals when it is necessary to employ them.

Cleaning Rooms prior to Re-Occupation.

13. If any expense in cleaning quarters or rooms be necessary it will be provided for by the controller.

G.O. 33.—Ashantee War.

(Specially issued, 31st March, 1874.)

I. His Royal Highness the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief has the most sincere satisfaction in the execution of his duty of conveying to Major General Sir Garnet Wolseley, K.C.B., G.C.M.G., and the officers, non-commissioned officers and men of all branches of the service under his command on the Gold Coast, the Queen's pleasure in welcoming them home on the occasion of the review in Windsor Great Park yesterday, when her Majesty was pleased to express her high admiration and pride at the gallant conduct exhibited, individually and collectively, by all ranks in bringing to a triumphant conclusion a most difficult and arduous service,—in which her troops had to encounter, not only organized savage tribes in their own impenetrable bush and paths, hitherto unexplored and known only to themselves, but also to contend against a climate proverbial for sickness and fevers so dangerous to European constitutions.

II. Independently of the excellent measures generally adopted, the Queen is persuaded that she may attribute the final and complete success of the expedition to that high sense and cordial spirit of discipline which animated and united all the branches of the service towards each other.

G.O. 34.—Recruiting—Extension of Army Service.

I. The proportions in which enlistments for long and short service, respectively, are in future to be made in the several branches of the service, under Clause 67 of the Army Circulars of 1874, are as follows, viz.—

	LONG.	SHORT.
Household Troops	Cavalry—All.
	Infantry—50 per cent.	50 per cent.
Cavalry of the Line	25	75
Royal Artillery	50	50
Royal Engineers	...	All
Infantry of the Line	25 per cent.	75 per cent.
Army Service Corps	50	50
Army Hospital Corps	All.
Colonial Corps	All.

II. Commanding officers are to take care that section 10 of the above-mentioned clause of the Army Circulars is made known to the men of their respective corps.

III. When soldiers, enlisted for short service, are recommended for permission to extend the terms of their engagement, so as to complete twelve years' service with the colours,—the applications are to be addressed to the Adjutant General of the Forces, if the men are serving at home—if abroad, to general officers commanding—who will report quarterly to the Adjutant General, the number of men permitted by them so to extend their services,—showing their ranks and regiments.

IV. When the requisite authority has been granted, the fact that a soldier has been allowed to extend his Army service will be duly entered on his record of service, together with the date of the authority.

G.O. 35.—Duties in aid of the Civil Power.

Referring to paragraph 74 of section 8 of the Queen's Regulations, 1873, it is notified that troops are not to be sent to assist the civil force in case of expected riots, except upon the written requisition of lords lieutenants, sheriffs, or a magistrate or magistrates having jurisdiction in the place where a riot is expected, or, in case of emergency, upon a telegram from such authorities.

G.O. 36.—Recruiting.

I. A memorandum showing, the "ADVANTAGES OF THE ARMY," and the "terms on which young men are invited to join her Majesty's forces," has been printed for general information.

II. Copies of this memorandum can be obtained on application to the Adjutant General, and commanding officers should make it their business to give it the widest possible circulation, and to take care that soldiers proceeding on furlough have the means of making it known at their homes.

G.O. 37.—Recruiting.

I. Until a recruit has been approved by the commanding officer, either of a sub-district, or corps, and by an Army surgeon, he is not to be considered as having been passed into the service.

II. When the recruit is approved, the medical certificate, on the second page of the attestation paper, must invariably be signed by an Army medical officer; but should there be no such officer at the head quarters of a sub-district, the final inspection of the recruit is to be made by the surgeon of the corps to which he is sent. He is not under any circumstances to be re-examined by a civilian medical practitioner.

By command,

RICHARD AIREY, Adj. Gen.

FOREIGN ORDERS.

The attention of Officers is drawn to the following REGULATIONS which are those now in force respecting FOREIGN ORDERS and are to be strictly adhered to.

1. No subject of Her Majesty shall accept a Foreign Order from the Sovereign of any foreign country, or wear the Insignia thereof, without having previously obtained Her Majesty's permission to that effect, signified by a Warrant under Her Royal Sign Manual.

2. Such permission shall not be granted to any Subject of Her Majesty, unless the Foreign Order shall have been conferred in consequence of active and distinguished Service before the Enemy, either at Sea or in the Field; or unless he shall have been actually and entirely employed, beyond Her Majesty's Dominions, in the Service of the Foreign Sovereign by whom the Order is conferred.

3. The intention of a Foreign Sovereign to confer upon a British Subject the Insignia of an Order, must be notified to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, either through the British Minister accredited at the Court of such Foreign Sovereign, or through His Minister accredited at the Court of Her Majesty.

4. If the service for which it is proposed to confer the Order has been performed during War, the Notification required by the preceding Clause must be made not later than two years after the exchange of the Ratifications of a Treaty of Peace.

If the service has been performed in time of Peace, the Notification must be made within two years after the date of such service.

5. After such Notification shall have been received, Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall, if the case comes within the conditions prescribed by the present Regulations, and arises from naval or military Services before the Enemy, refer it to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department previously to taking Her Majesty's pleasure thereupon, in order to ascertain whether there be any objection to Her Majesty's permission being granted.

A similar reference shall also be made to the Field Marshal Commanding in Chief, if the application relates to an Officer in the Army, or to the Lords of the Admiralty, if it relates to an Officer in the Navy.

6. When Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs shall have taken the Queen's pleasure on any such application, and shall have obtained Her Majesty's permission for the person in whose favour it has been made to accept the Foreign Order, and wear the Insignia thereof, he shall signify the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, in order that he may cause the Warrant required by Clause 1 to be prepared for the Royal Sign Manual.

When such Warrant shall have been signed by the Queen, a Notification thereof shall be inserted in the Gazette, stating the service for which the Foreign Order has been conferred.

7. The Warrant signifying Her Majesty's permission may, at the request and at the expense of the person who has obtained it, be registered in the College of Arms.

8. Every such Warrant as aforesaid shall contain a Clause providing that Her Majesty's licence and permission does not authorize the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence or privilege appertaining to a Knight Bachelor of Her Majesty's Realm.

9. When a British Subject has received the Royal permission to accept a Foreign Order, he will at any future time be allowed to accept the Decoration of a higher Class of the same Order, to which he may become eligible by increase of rank in the Foreign Service, or in the Service of his own country; or any other distinctive mark of honour strictly consequent upon the acceptance of the original Order, and common to every person upon whom such Order is conferred.

10. The preceding Clause shall not be taken to apply to Decorations of the Guelphic Order which were bestowed on British Subjects by Her Majesty's predecessors, King George IV. and King William IV., on whose heads the Crowns of Great Britain and of Hanover were united.

Decorations so bestowed cannot properly be considered as rewards granted by a Foreign Sovereign for services rendered according to the purport of Clause 2 of these Regulations. They must be rather considered as personal favours bestowed on British Subjects by British Sovereigns, and as having no reference to services rendered to the Foreign Crown of Hanover.

REGULATIONS RESPECTING MEDALS

GRANTED FOR ACTS OF BRAVERY IN SAVING LIFE.

THE FIELD MARSHAL COMMANDING IN CHIEF having sanctioned Medals granted for acts of bravery in saving life being worn in Uniform, whenever a Society may consider any officer, non-commissioned officer or soldier entitled to receive a Medal, the decoration, together with a statement of the act of bravery performed, should be sent to the Adjutant General to the Forces, in order that the recipient's name may be registered, and the necessary authority issued for the distinction to be worn.

These Medals will be worn on the Right Breast.

REGULATIONS RESPECTING FOREIGN MEDALS.

148

1. Applications for permission to accept and wear Medals which, not being the decoration of any Foreign Order, are conferred by a foreign Sovereign on British subjects in the Army or in the Navy for military or for naval services, should be addressed, as the case may be, to the Commander in Chief or the Lords of the Admiralty, who, if they see fit, may submit the same to Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs for Her Majesty's sanction; upon obtaining which they may grant such permission without any other formality.

2. Any British subject is at liberty to accept and wear a Foreign Medal, not being the decoration of a Foreign Order, bestowed by competent authority for acts of bravery in saving human life. An officer, soldier, marine or sailor must, however, first obtain permission from the Commander in Chief or the Lords of the Admiralty, as the case may be.

3. No permission is necessary for accepting a Foreign Medal, if such Medal is not to be worn.

FINANCE.

Cl. 82.—Summer Drills, 1874.

1. Officers belonging to corps not mounted who may be temporarily employed on mounted duty in connection with the camps of instruction which are to be formed during the ensuing summer at Aldershot, and quarter masters of Infantry regiments, will be granted an allowance at the rate of 12s. 6d. a-day, for the purpose of providing themselves with horses, saddlery and servants.

2. Forage will also be issued to these officers.

3. These allowances will be granted from 30th May to 28th June inclusive, and from 4th July to 3rd August inclusive, unless an officer serves during both periods of time, when the allowances may be issued from 30th May to 3rd August inclusive.

4. Staff pay will commence from the day on which duty is assumed, as notified in General Orders at Aldershot.

5. The hire of transport will not be allowed in any case.

6. The ordinary rations of provisions, groceries, forage, fuel and light will be issued.

CONTROL SERVICES.

Cl. 83.—Disallowances on Contractors' Claims.

1. When a disallowance has been made on the claim of a contractor employed under the Royal Engineer Department, after it has been paid by the control paymaster, the over-payment will be adjusted, so far as the contractor is concerned, by deducting the amount from the next claim due to him, and paying him the difference. No money will pass between the contractor and the commanding Royal Engineer.

2. The deduction will be made in red ink in the abstract of the claim.

3. The adjustment of the actual disallowance will be shown in the account of the control paymaster, who will charge the gross amount of the claim on one side of his account and credit the disallowance at page 18 of the General State, under the head of "Disallowances."

Cl. 84.—Supply of Lime for Sanitary purposes.

1. Lime is to be used for sanitary purposes, such as the ordinary purification of drains, ash-pits, urinals, and cesspits, and will, on the requisition of commanding officers, be provided by the contractor,—the triennial Royal Engineer contractor where there is one,—on the order of the control officer.

2. W. O. Form 1420 will be annexed as the voucher for the expense in the accounts of the control paymaster.

3. Cases of emergency, in which the use of lime would not suffice, are provided for by Clause 102, Army Circulars, 1869, and paragraph 284, Revised Army Regulations, vol. iv.

Cl. 85.—Quinquennial Remains of Stores.

1. Controllers will be held responsible that the remains of reserve and expense stores, referred to in Clauses 94 and 95, Army Circulars, 1873, are taken, both at home and abroad, at least once in every five years.

2. Before commencing any remain at home stations, controllers will report to the general officer commanding that a remain has become necessary, in order that if it should be deemed desirable an officer may be specially appointed for the duty by the Secretary of State for War.

Cl. 86.—Stores returned as Unserviceable.

1. The certificate referred to in paragraph 10, Clause 82, Army Circulars, 1870, specifying the stores condemned as unserviceable, and showing the materials which, on conversion, the articles in question have produced, will in future be given in manuscript on the delivery voucher, in the manner shown in the Appendix [not printed in Army List].
